

A Defense Acquisition University (DAU) Equivalent Provider

COR: Contracting Officer's Representative

Class Offering & Location

September 9-13, 2019

Location: Public Contracting Institute, 1725 Eye Street NW, Suite 100, Washington, D.C. 20006)

Length: 5 days

Format: Classroom Based

Price: $1,175.00/student

Pre-Work: None

Course Description

This course is specifically designed for Contracting Officer's Representatives (CORs) who are responsible for assuring that contractors perform in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract. COR 222 will provide CORs the breadth of knowledge required to perform their role, including knowledge related to COR roles and responsibilities, as well as fundamentals of contracting regulations, types, phases, and other elements; awareness of ethical and legal factors that impact COR responsibilities; and information necessary to effectively evaluate situations, apply knowledge gained, and make correct decisions to carry out COR responsibilities.

Learning Objectives:

Recognize the duties, limitations and authority of the COR.

Identify key laws and regulations that address fraud, waste and abuse and ethical considerations in federal contracting

Recognize COR responsibilities in acquisition mission support planning and award process

Given a contract action, identify the delegated technical functions for which the COR is responsible as outlined in the delegation letter.

Recognize the COR's role in tracking contract expenditures performance of the contract

Describe a COR's responsibilities in inspecting and accepting goods and services

Identify major requirements for timely invoice review and payments

Identify control and disposition requirements for government furnished or leased assets

Identify the unique characteristics of a construction contract

Identify the unique characteristics of contracts in major systems and R&D acquisitions

For more information go to www.rezolutionllc.com